Council Serves Students

The purpose of the Student Council is to represent the student body in school functions. They provide social, educational, and service activities for students. The council encourages good student-teacher relations and provides leadership training for its members.

The Student Council began its year with a trip to Pecan Plantation for a "planning retreat" to organize activities for the year. They took pictures for ID cards and sponsored a luncheon for the teachers.

September was full of Student Council activities. They sold Spirit Hands and Tiger Fever T-shirts. They gave Everman High School a friendship plaque at one of the first home football games.

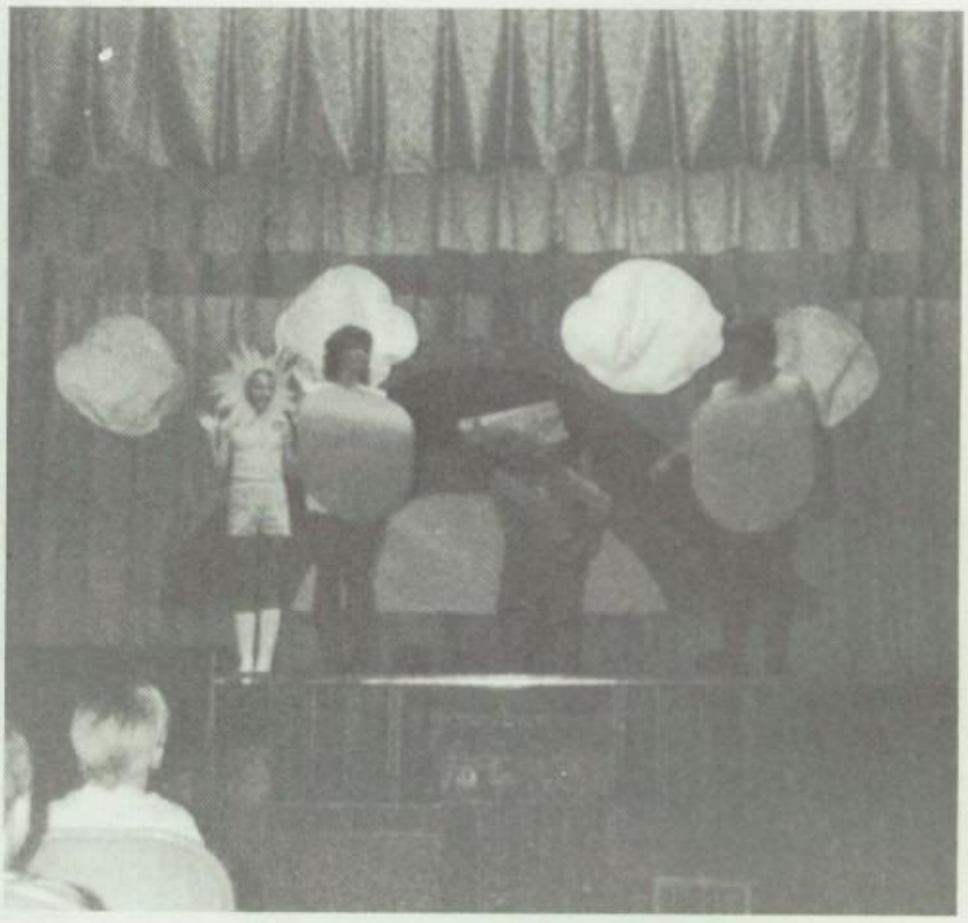
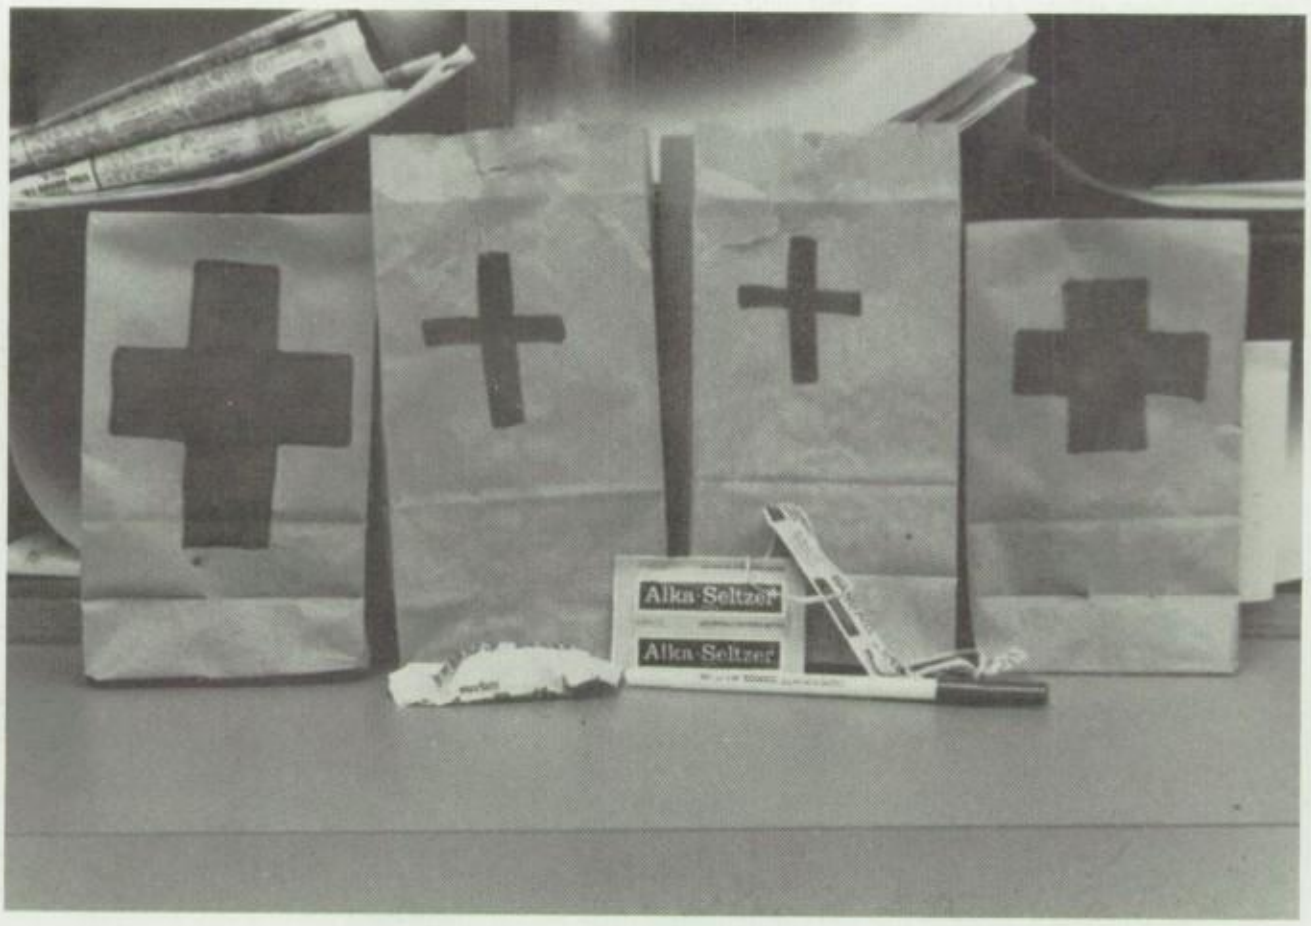
Ms. Walker plays Clarissa in the faculty play, "The Little Red School House."



Members of the Student Council put on a play about nutrition for the elementary schools in the Mansfield School District.



Teachers received "Teacher Survival Kits" from the Student Council.

SC Makes School Bearable

The Student Council organized many Homecoming activities. They "Canned Cancer" and pushed the Great American Smoke Out. They raised food and toys for the needy at Christmas. The Student Council sponsored "The Little Red School House" play by the teachers. They sponsored a very successful blood drive and gave the teachers "survival kits" during semester tests.

Many Student Council members attended the District Convention in Cleburne, Texas. Energy Night Live and Physical Fitness week took place along with the Spring Fling. The Student Council had many activities throughout the school year for the entire student body to look forward to.

Jazz Band Goes European

The Mansfield High School Jazz Band consists of "some of the best" band players who are learning to play jazz music through practice, hard work, and performances. Their hard work paid off in the form of an invitation to tour Europe. They will travel through and play in Romania and Greece. They have done many projects to raise the $46,000 needed to make the trip on May 31. They gave away an autographed Dallas Cowboy football, and held bake sales and a rummage sale. Good Luck, Jazz Band!

Band's Work Pays Off

It all began on August 10. On this day, 114 band members met at the Band Hall for the kickoff of summer band practices. After the students learned how to play their instruments again, they began hard work on the halftime show to be performed at Cleburne and U.I.L. Marching Contests. The band members had only one goal in mind this year: straight I's at U.I.L. After achieving this, the band brought football season to a close by electing Erin Malley as the sweetheart. As the year went on, the band had a Christmas party, December 12, and played a Christmas concert, December 15. March 10 and 11 brought U.I.L. concert and sightreading contests. As the year came to a close, the band could proudly state that the year was a great success.

"Can I kiss her now?" begs Chris Walters, escort to Erin Malley, 1981-82 band sweetheart.

"I can play better than you, David!" brags Lance Zimmet, junior.

"This is for you Mom!" exclaims David Smithhart, trumpet soloist.

"Off to See the Wizard"

The Choir is a very special group of people. They are a gifted group, who can make even the saddest of people smile. With their voices of faith and happiness they bring a sparkle of excitment to the Art Department.

This 1982 school year the M.H.S. Choir performed in the musical, "The Wizard of Oz." In this production the choir, drama, and music dept. did a splendid job on this world renowned classic.

The rest of the year was filled with U.I.L. competition, caroling at malls, and singing for audiences of young and old.

"Marching for First"

The Dixie Dolls began their year as they marched in the Fourth of July parade, here they received two first place trophies. Then the Dixie Dolls traveled to Kilgore College for summer camp. They won three more first place trophies.

The Dixie Dolls put on great performances at the football games, basketball games, pep rallies, the Miss Mansfield pageant, and the annual Spring Show.

This year's fund raiser was selling garters during homecoming week. Selling calendars was another fund raiser.

The Dixie Dolls elected Charles Ray Wilson as the 1981-82 beau.

Yearbook More Than Class

The yearbook staff is a group of dedicated students that have put serving the student body as their top priority.

Each member of the staff was faced with blank pages and the responsibility of filling those pages to the approval of the students. This task was a difficult one as only five of the staffers had previous yearbook experience.

The staff worked from August until February on the book itself. They then began preparation for the 1983 TIGER.

"It won't fit," sighs a disgusted ALICIA JINKS.

"Now to read over my copy," thinks STEPHANIE POWELL.

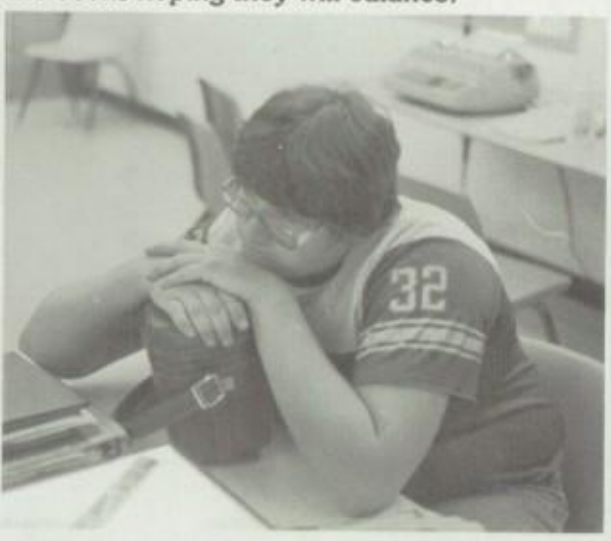
"Should I answer him this time?" questions RENEE OWENS of Co-Editor BILLY MILLER's call for a photographer.

"Look over there!" exclaims MIKE LEWIS to MARCE JOHNSON as he claims a note from her purse.

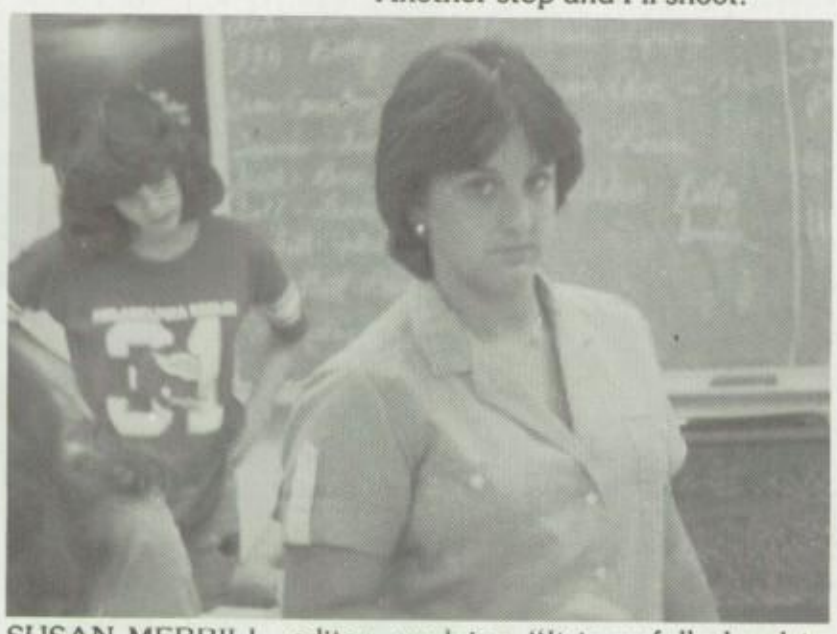
"I didn't get on the staff just to fold letters, JULIE GARVIN," states KRYSTINA HORTON.

Business Manager JANIE KELLEY and Editor BILLY MILLER look over the books hoping they will balance.

LEE AND ROPER, staff photographer, warns "Another step and I'll shoot."



JAMES KILGORE sleeps away another day.



SUSAN MERRILL, editor, explains, "It is awfully hard to work with sophomores like LYNNE ROBINSON."

"There's a tinman, lion and scarecrow at the door for me?" asks a surprised TINA GLENN alias Dorothy.

"You need that picture WHEN!" exclaims KENT PATTERSON.

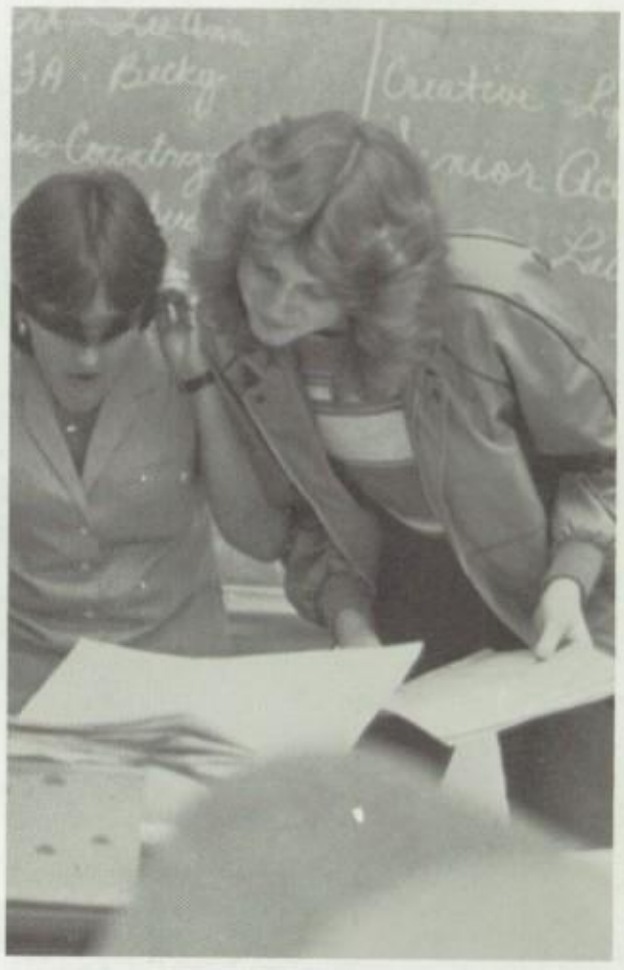
JOHN PRESSLEY diligently searches for the copy for his club pages.



New Wave artist SUSAN MERRILL and LAURI TINGLE look over the latest layouts.

Bengal Beat in Eighth Year

The Bengal Beat was formed in 1974 as Mansfield High School's first newspaper. The Bengal Beat is published monthly be Journalism I, II, and III students. The Bengal Beat is financially independent and is produced through the funds from advertisers.

The Bengal Beat sends staff members to the Interscholastic League Press Conference and UIL Journalism Contests. The Bengal Beat has a proven record of bringing Mansfield High first place trophies from these statewide contests.

TRACI JOHNSON and CARLA MULLINS consider a trip to Mexico on Bengal Beat paper money.

DAVID LOONEY and BARRY TABOR question Mrs. Fickle's editing.

SHERI SWAFFORD asks for advice from new Beng Beat sponsor, Mary Fickle.

LEE ANN ROPER is not only a staff photographer but also a Bengal Beat reporter.

BILLY MILLER, business manager, works on a late breaking story for the Bengal Beat.

MIKE CRUTCHFIELD and PAUL HICKS enjoy the day after paper sales.

DENELL JONES and COLLETTE WADDELL have a make-up session after a trip to the printers.

SHEILA SIMMONS demands the photographer take pictures for the paper, not of her.

MIKE LEWIS studies the corner of a desk.

RANDY MCDONALD and KYLE MABE do research for a story.

As the deadline approaches, ANGELA KUYKENDALL types her story.

DENELL JONES writes her "DID YOU KNOW" column for the paper.

Journalism students break away from traditional group shots.

Journalism I babies, PHILLIP BROWN, DOUG BRENDLE, TERRIE HEMBREE, polish their writing in hopes of becoming J II students.

LAURIE PATTERSON, JULIE GARVIN, JOHN PRESSLEY, and KIM WHEELER study journalism from newspapers and books.

Drama Club is "All for One"

We are an organization trying to carry on the theatre art tradition in our secondary school. Our motto is "All for one, one for all, and all for the love of the stage." Acting is a way of life. It is tough. Some people have said that drama has no "teeth" in it. Let him try to perform in front of a judge knowing his every movement is being watched. Our goal is to keep drama alive in the community. We participate in U.I.L. contest, musicals, and of course, our own major production and variety show. Every year we have a dinner theater for the Chamber of Commerce.

"Caring — Our way of Life"

The Key Club is an international service organization covering the United States, Canada, and the Carribean. It is a group of young men and women working together to serve their school and community beyond the capability of the individual.

The Key Club is a branch of the Kiwanis Club. "Caring — Our Way of Life," is the Key Club motto. The objectives of Key Club include: developing initiative and leadership, serve school and community, prepare for useful citizenship, promote higher standards of scholarship, sportsmanship and social contacts, increase of righteousness, justice patriotism, and good will.

Engineers of Tomorrow

JETS (Junior Engineering Technical Society) is made up of juniors and seniors who have an interest in engineering and applied science. The purposes of JETS are to promote interest in engineering and applied science, and to assist students with career training in these fields. Along with offering scholarships, JETS also encourages members to make their environment a better place to live through an understanding of technology and its inter-action with society. Major activities included speaker, a trip to UTA, and a trip to Texas A&M.

French Club Widens Perspectives

The French Club was formed to broaden the students' interest in the French language and culture.

The club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Paula Hashke, went on a French picnic in September. At Halloween, they sponsored a French horror film, "Diabolique," and at Christmas they sang French carols at the Nursing Home. During the spring they held a soccer match and at several times throughout the year they went to French restaurants through the area.

"Parlvez vous Francias?" asks KIM HEITMAN

"This is my favorite part of French Club," says EMILIA MOSHTAGH.

Spanish Club Builds Interest

The Spanish Club was formed to build student interest in the Spanish culture and language. The first formal meeting of the year was a Spanish supper, and all of the students prepared Spanish foods.

The Spanish Club participated in the International Day sponsored by the Student Council. They made paper flowers, cooked and sold food, and had a fake tequila drinking contest.

To get into the Christmas spirit, the Spanish Club went to the nursing home and sang Christmas carols.

As the year went on, plans for a trip to Mexico City during the spring break were organized, and they attended a ballet folklorico at the convention center.

"Tomorrow's Teachers"

To provide information and experience for those students who wish to become teachers are the goals of the Future Teachers of America.

The FTA is involved in many activities such as two days of teaching and assisting teachers at local elementary schools.

November 14 the FTA attended State Convention at TWC and will attend workshops during the year.

A Christmas party was given for residents of a local nursing home by FTA members.

At the beginning of the year, FTA members chose "secret pals" from the teachers at the high school. The members provided cards and gifts to help make the teachers days easier.

FFA Prepares for Future

The Future Farmers of America is a national youth organization stretching from Alaska to Puerto Rico. Through active participation the members learn by taking part in the different areas the FFA offers, such as: contests on meeting conducting, public speaking, livestock showing, and occupational skills.

The Mansfield Chapter of The FFA consists of 120 members. It's fund raising project was selling fruit during the fall.

The Mansfield FFA showteam, which consists of 26 members, raised money for the trip to the Houston Livestock Show by having a bake and garage sale, and serving refreshments at TCU. Cara Jernigan was selected as the 1981-82 Sweetheart.

Cosmetology and ICT Plan for Careers

Cosmetology is something new offered this year. The students who are enrolled in this class commute daily to Cedar Hill Middle School, for three hours of class.

The class is run much like a professional job and the students must punch in on a time card. This accounts for their 1000 hours of training requirements. It is a two year training program and the students enrolled must be juniors.

Upon completion of the course and passing a state board exam in Austin, the graduates will be licensed hairdressers and may be hired for work.

"A Long, Long Summer"

In the hottest part of the summer, the Tiger football team began practicing. With long, trudging workouts of running sprints, lifting weights, and calisthenics, each player learns to endure pain. The learning and memorizing of plays is a time consuming task of responsibility from each player to the team.

"Seasonal Injuries"

As the season opened, injuries struck the fighting Tigers. During pre-season, Jim Thomas, senior, suffered until the middle of the season with a broken ankle. In the first game against Boswell, Blake Harris, senior, hyper-extended his shoulder. Many players hobbled off the field that night with leg cramps. On the third game of the season against Polytechnic, Charles Ray Wilson, senior, broke the upper part of his arm. With this injury, Charles Ray knew it was the end of his 1981 football season.

Win Opens Season

On January 15, in a gym packed with Mansfield and Waxahachie fans, was the first district 6AAAA game between the fifth ranked Tigers and the third ranked Indians.

The Tigers jumped off to a six point lead in the first quarter then the lead switched hands until the middle of the third quarter when "Hachie" took a ten point lead. The Tigers fought back until the third quarter ended with Waxahachie leading 49 to 41. During the fourth quarter, the Indian players fouled eight times which sent Mansfield to the free-throw line, but the Tigers failed to make the free shots. Finally, with little time left on the clock, Jon Massey scored to give the Tigers a two point lead. The Tigers opened the season with a win by defeating the Waxahachie Indians 61 to 59.

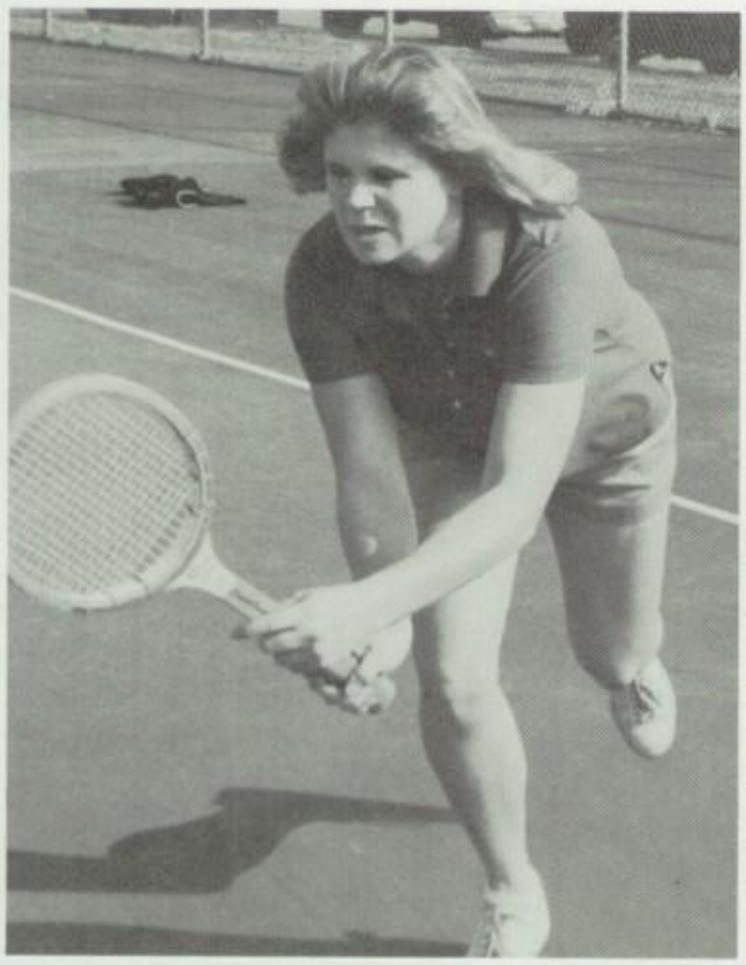
SUSAN MERRILL, senior, cannot decide whether to hit the ball with her racket or with her hand.

"This is how it is supposed to be done!" states DEBBIE BULLARD, coach.

JAY BRADLEY, sophomore, shows the perfect technique for hitting "moon balls."

HAL ELLIS, sophomore, pegs his opponent with a forehand shot.



CYNDIE HUNTER, senior, thinks about her research paper while hitting the ball.

"Ouch, you almost got me!" sighs KYLE COUCH, junior.

"Advantage . . ."

The 1981-82 Varsity tennis team got off to a swinging start this February by defeating Waxahachie. With many returning lettermen, and a lot of new players, the team started on its upswing to a challenging year.

"Game . . . Set . . . Match!"

Golfers Tee-Off

As district champions for five years in a row, the Mansfield girls golf team is searching for another gold medal. With three returning lettermen and new players arriving, the girls hope to reach their goal to play in the state tournament once again.

KELLEY GLASSBURNER gives the ball a good hit and sails it on down the fairway.

LAURI TINGLE finds it windy to hit the ball.

1st row: C. Holloway, S. Croft — coach. 2nd row: K. Glassburner, D. Steele, N. Irick, L. Patterson, L. Tingle.

Golfers Stay Under Par

Keeping their score while they're playing golf, the boys must turn in their score cards so Coach Viertel can pick his five best players to take to tournaments. The boys hope to catch their district title once more in hopes to advance to the state tournament. Losing a few returning lettermen, next year's team will have an even better team in the years to come.

1st row: J. Jones, R. Bell, M. Stubblefield, P. Hicks, B. Alvine. 2nd row: R. Anderson, D. Teal, P. Reesing, T. Viertel — coach.

Miss MHS 1982 Is . . .

Kristie Haynes, senior, won the title of Miss Mansfield High School on November 14, 1982. She was chosen from a record breaking field of 65 contestants.

Kristie was a member of the Dixie Dolls for 2 and a half years. She is now an active member of the Rodeo Club. She won the Texas State High School Girl's Cutter title in 1981, and was ranked 15th in the nation. She reigns as Miss Haltom-Richland Area Rodeo Queen and Miss Pioneer Days Rodeo Queen. Kristie competed in the Miss Rodeo Texas contest in January, 1982.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Honors listed on these pages were brought into the halls of MHS before the February deadline. Many organizations bring home state wins from the spring contests.

Who's Who

Each year the sponsors of MHS organizations and the department heads chose two or more of their top seniors to represent their respective clubs and departments in the yearbook. These senior pictures make up the "Who's Who" section of the yearbook.

The "Who's Who" section rewards these seniors with the recognition their achievements deserve. It also provides an incentive for the underclassmen to work harder so that they will be recognized in "Who's Who."

Many Junior girls and boys found time to participate in the annual Powder Puff football game. The boys enjoyed themselves either by being spectators or performing on the Drill Team or the Cheerleading Squad. The girls had a good time playing a game of flag football. The final score was 28 to 0, with the Juniors victorious.

"Wealthy Sophomores"

During the school year the sophomores decided to take their Prom money fund seriously by selling candy during October, the selling of M&M's met with much success as other students emptied their pockets. Soon the girls embarked upon Powder-Puff, and a few of the boys of the sophomore class showed their support by signing up as coaches, and cheerleaders. They proved that they were not afraid to participate in all school activities. Keep up the good work Sophomores!

Make me happy; make me smile
remember me when I'm gone only for a little while

The way we can talk every day makes me think about what I'm wanting to say.

If you only knew; and it's true
the deep thing I feel
I'd call it love through and through.

You're my fallen tear
and my ray of hope;
for this I love you, my dear.

If we can reach for the sky,
take my hand, honey,
and let's give it a try.

Dry my tears when I weep;
remember I love you
so please just think.

When you're happy when you smile,
remember someone loves you always for a very long while.

We've been through a lot my friend
but will it slip away?

I really hope it won't for you
I'm here to stay.
We seem to keep changing we go our separate ways.
But somehow it comes back again
on a brighter day.
So as we grow older and the days turn to years, I'll always remember you as my special friend.

"Ships"

sailing, swiftly, floating
I lost you before I knew
I couldn't grasp it,
I slowly let it go.
I tried to catch up to you
But you moved away too fast
I got lost inside the current and the whirlwind that goes
'round.
Finally, I got back on my feet
and took a look around.

The ship, sailing swiftly back
I wasn't sure so I stepped back,
I didn't want to take that ride
But, you went on ahead.
It was the last chance
before you started to go.
The ship, sailing, swiftly, floating across the ocean wide.
I stood and watched you go,
Darn, my foolish pride!

Dreams

Dreams are like a silent wind blowing through the trees. They carry love they carry hope to all the little leaves. That someday they might rise to fall. But just to rise again to see that all their dreams come true like the dreams of a silent wind.

Juan,

Well, it's been fun but I wish we had more classes together. So, who do you like these days? TJ? No way huh?

Dont work too hard this summer and try to stay sober, a little!

Call me sometimes

"Like as the waves make toward the pebbled shore,
So do our minutes hasten to their end."

Richard Grafton

We hope the 1982 TIGER will serve as a memory of the days at Mansfield High School.

Susan Merrill and Billy Miller, Editors.

Jaco!!!!!

Im glad we got to be such good friends - you have been a great friend - we have had great times together and I hope we can get together and raise hell this summer and take care! Lylas! Kackit

SR. '83!!

Jooter!

well it's at the end of another year! guess, I'm really glad we became good friends, you're sweet nice + cute, Good luck with whatever love you!

Linda Redmon

Quanita,
You're a really sweet girl. Its been fun having you as a friend. Keep in touch
Junior year is almost over!

To my kurtin
buddy. I'll love you always. I still haven't talked to Chris. Maybe someday I will.
See ya at another party.
Love ya,
Tracy

Parker,
You a real good friend and nice girl I am glad we have got to be friend see ya next year

Stacy
Mayfield

You a very sweet but sometimes crazy gal. Im really glad that we became friends
Good Luck.
Love,
Renè
